DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is the answer to the Amendment filed on July 28, 2006, which paper has been placed of record in the file.
2. Claims 1-14 are pending in this application.

Response to Arguments/Amendment

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-14 have been considered but are moot in view of new grounds of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

5. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims, as presently claimed and best understood were reconsidered in light of the "Examination Guidelines for Computer-Related Inventions" and were found to be non-statutory. Discussion of the analysis of the claims under the guidelines follows.

As to claims 6-8, the claimed invention is implemented as Functional descriptive material per se. "A computer program product" recited in the claims is a Functional descriptive material. When functional descriptive material is recorded on some computer-readable medium it becomes structurally and functionally interrelated to the medium and will be statutory in most cases since use of technology permits the function of the descriptive material to be realized. Compare In re Lowry, 32 F.3d 1579, 1583-84, 32 USPQ2d 1031, 1035 (Fed. Cir. 1994) (claim to data structure stored on a computer readable medium that increases computer efficiency held statutory) and Warmerdam, 33 F.3d at 1360-61, 31 USPQ2d at 1759 (claim to computer having a specific data structure stored in memory held statutory product-by-process claim) with Warmerdam, 33 F.3d at 1361, 31 USPQ2d at 1760 (claim to a data structure per se held nonstatutory). In this case, the computer program product recited in the claims is not recorded on any computer-readable medium.

Therefore, claims 6-8 are non-statutory, because they are directed solely to Functional descriptive material per se.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1-5 and 91-4 are allowed over the prior arts cited record.

Conclusion

7. Claims 6-8 are rejected. Claims 1-5 and 9-14 are allowed.
